

NEW ENGLAND AFFILIATE-CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES

You are cordially invited to attend the second annual meeting of the New England Affiliate of the Conference on British Studies to be held this year at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut, on April 26 and 27, 1969.

Saturday, April 26

1:00 - 2:00 Registration (Lobby, Continuing Education Center)

2:00 - 4:00 Choice of sessions as follows:

Medieval and Renaissance England (Education 201)

Charles T. Wood (Dartmouth) "Personality and Constitutional Crisis: The Question of Edward II"

William H. Dunham (Yale) "Richard III and the Three Estates of the Realm"

David E. Underdown (Brown) "Reform and Inertia under the Rump"
Chairman: Fred A. Cazal, Jr. (Connecticut)

Eighteenth Century England (Education 325)

Mary B. Wickwire (Massachusetts) "Cornwallis in America: Defeat"

Franklin B. Wickwire (Massachusetts) "Cornwallis in India: Victory"

George B. Cooper (Trinity) "Is George III Ready Yet?"
Chairman: James L. McKelvey (Connecticut)

4:00 - 6:00 Reception (Faculty-Alumni Center)

6:15 Dinner (Faculty-Alumni Center)
Bernhard Knollenberg "The Duke of Newcastle and the Colonies"

Sunday, April 27

10:00 - 12:00 Session on Imperialism (Education Auditorium)

John F. Battick (Maine) "Cromwell's Imperial Vision: A Revaluation of the Western Design"

William A. Green, Jr. (Holy Cross) "The Free Labor Experiment in the British West Indies"

Ann Beck (Hartford) "Aspects of Imperialism: Disease and Government in East Africa"

Chairman: Edmund S. Wehrle (Connecticut)

12:00 - 12:30 Business Meeting
Election of Executive Officer
Consideration of Annual Dues

12:30 Luncheon (Housatonic Room, Commons)
Cafeteria Service