

NEW ENGLAND BRITISH STUDIES CONFERENCE, SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1978
N120 and N215 - New Building

Assumption College, 500 Salisbury Street
Worcester, Massachusetts 01609

- 9:00 to 10:00 A.M.; Coffee, Doughnuts and Registration (abstracts of papers can be picked up at this time). Lobby-Second Floor, New Building.
- 10:00 A.M. Business Meeting, started with greetings from President Rev. Wilfrid Dufault, A.A., Assumption College
- 10:30 to 12:00 Two sessions of papers running simultaneously.
A. Session on Medieval and Renaissance History, N120 New Building
Chair: Fred Cazal, Professor, Department of History
University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut

Speakers and Papers:

JoAnn Hoepfner Moran, Associate Professorial
Lecturer, Department of History, George Washington University, Washington, D.C.
"The Intellectual Milieu of the City of York, 1300-1550;
Education, Literacy and Literary Interests"

R. Malcolm Smuts, Assistant Professor, Department of History, University of Massachusetts at Boston, Boston,
Massachusetts
"Culture and Royalist Tradition in Early Stuart England"

- B. Session on England in the Nineteenth Century, N215 New Building
Chair: Theresa McBride, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Holy Cross College, Worcester, Massachusetts

Speakers and Papers:

Howard Malchow, Assistant Professor, Department of History,
Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts
"The Urban Amenities Movement in Late Victorian London"

Patricia Otto Klaus, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut
"The Marriage Patterns of Scottish Peers Daughters"

Peter Dunkley, Assistant Professor, Department of History,
Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.
"Deference, Order, and the Making of the New Poor Law"

- 12:00 to 2:00 Cash Bar and Lunch. Taylor Dining Hall-Large Private Dining Room.
Tickets for lunch can be purchased in advance.

- 2:00 to 3:30 Two sessions of papers running simultaneously.
A. Session on England in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries, N 215 New Building.
Chair: Howard Nenner, Associate Professor, Department of History,
Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts

Speakers and Papers:

John F. Sena, Associate Professor, Department of English,
Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio
"Samuel Garth and the Dispensary: The Project and the Poem"

Gary S. DeKrey, Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey
"Nonconformity in London in the Reign of William III"

John W. Osborne, Professor, Department of History,
Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey
"Some Non-Burkeian Conservatives of the Eighteenth Century: Bolinbroke, Hume, Johnson and Gibbon"

B. Session on England in the Twentieth Century, N120 New Building
Chair: Fred Leventhal, Associate Professor, Department of History,
Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts

Speakers and Papers:

Jay P. Corrin, Assistant Professor of Social Science,
College of Basic Studies, Boston University, Boston,
Massachusetts.

"An Alternative to Socialism and Capitalism: the Distributist Ideas of G.K. Chesterton and Hilaire Belloc"

Major Donald Bittner, Military Historian, United States
Marine Corps Command and Staff College, Quantico, Virginia.
"Officer of Marines, 1914: A Shattered Image"

4:00 P.M.

Sherry Party given by Rev. Wilfrid Dufault of Assumption College, Maison Salon.

If you would like to spend the night either on the 21st or 22nd of April, the following hotels are close to Assumption College. Reservations should be made as soon as possible.

Holiday Inn
70 Southbridge St.
Worcester, Mass.
Single: $18.50
Double: $22.50
(Special rates for Assumption College events).

Sheraton Lincoln Inn
500 Lincoln St.
Worcester, Mass.
(Exit 20 off
Interstate 290)
Single: $26, 28, 30.
Double: $34, 36, 38.

Howard Johnsons
800 Southbridge St.
Worcester, Mass.
(Exit 11 off
Interstate 290)
Single: $23.50
Double: $32.50
